TYLER'S It's easy to think of Tyler's — once home to Palm Springs' first bus depot back in the 1930s — as more of a hamburger stand, especially when you wait for one of the tables on the patio. But good things come to those who the long lines. Make that great things: Big (or Tyler's popular mini-burger Sliders), thick juicy slabs of beef topped with cheese and/or chili, sandwiched between a freshly-baked bun. You'll have to shell out extra bucks for the delightfully crispy fries or the peppery creamy cole slaw ... (almost) as good as the burgers. Casual fun, perfect for a first relaxed date. Don't leave home without cash: Tyler's does not take plastic. 149 S. Indian Canyon Drive, Palm Springs. 325-2990
